2.1 Observers

- i) Representatives of the Gulf Research Centre from UAE
- ii) Delegates from World Eminence Chinese Businessmen Association.

3.0 Opening Ceremony

3.1 The honourable Minister of Industry and Commerce of Bahrain, Dr Hassan A. Fakro who represented HRH Prince Khalifa Bin Salman Al-Khalifa, the Prime Minister of Bahrain in his opening speech welcomed the delegates to Bahrain and assured the meeting that the leadership and government of Bahrain was very pleased to welcome the delegation to Bahrain for what the country felt was a very important meeting that would discuss ways of bolstering Arab and African trade and economic relations.

3.2 He observed that the meeting was timely as it had come shortly after the Arab and African summit held in Libya, which discussed among other issues, energy cooperation, water resources, investment in infrastructure, food security, agriculture coordination and trade.

3.3 He observed that the African and Arab countries faced common challenges as developing countries. He therefore urged that the meeting of chambers of commerce and industries in Africa and the Arab world should find ways and means of instituting strong economic cooperation between the two regions.

4.0 Dr. Issam Fakhro, the Chairman of Bahrain Chamber of Commerce and Industry, in his welcome address said he was very pleased to host this very important 2nd Meeting of Chambers of Commerce and Industry and also reminded the audience that the meeting was held under the Royal patronage of His Royal Highness Prince Khalifa Bin Salman Al-Khalifa, the Prime Minister who had always shown support since the beginning of the preparation work for the very important meeting.

4.1 He also referred to the positive climate, Bahrain was experiencing at the time with the successful parliamentary election on the Island and emphasized the interest the political leadership in Bahrain had always shown in regional as well as international cooperation at all levels. He also thanked ASSECAA for choosing Bahrain as a venue for the 2nd Meeting of Chambers of Commerce and Industry in Africa and the Arab world and promised every support for the meeting.

5.0 The Secretary-General of ASSECAA, Mr. Livinus I. Osuji delivered the welcome address in which he recalled the resolutions of the previous meeting held in South Africa from 25th to 27th October 2008. He highlighted that ASSECAA was formed in response to the prevailing world phenomena. Countries are aligning into regional trade and associations to expand internal market, increase productivity and create employment within their regions and thus to have a strong bargaining position in the globalised world market. He restated the objectives of the Association which include strengthening of socio-economic, political and cultural cooperation between the two regions of Africa and the Arab world and the reduction of poverty.

5.1 He informed the forum that if an enduring and functional framework was established, a resilient and strong platform for economic development of the two regions, to enable them withstand the onslaught of globalisation and attract to the region, the attention of international investors and technology, would be created.
